I am writing in response to your email of 6 April 2021, which we have handled as a Subject Access Request under Article 15 of the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

We have carried out a thorough search and we have established that the Home Office does not hold any personal data within the scope of your request. The information would have been destroyed in line with the Department's disposal and retention policies.

If you are dissatisfied with this response, you have a right of complaint to the Information Commissioner at the following address:-

Yours sincerely
